LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill:
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

To carry on business as timber and lumber merchants, sawmill and shingle-mill proprietors and operators, loggers, lumbermen, and lumber merchants in all or any of their branches, and to buy, sell, log, prepare for market, manipulate, manufacture, import, export, and deal in timber, sawlogs, shingle-bolts, lumber, wood, and forest produce of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in any by-product of wood or of the forest, and in articles and products of all kinds in the manufacture of which timber or wood is used or forms any part, and to buy, clear, plant, and work timber estates:

(b.) To carry on business as warehousemen, general merchants, store and hotel keepers, coal and fuel merchants, and any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to render profitable or enhance the value of the Company's property or rights for the time being:

(c.) To take or acquire by purchase or otherwise, and obtain options over, and to construct, alter, improve, operate, control, manage, and deal in and with:—

(1.) Mills, mill machinery and plant, machine-shops, factories, works, logging camps, logging machinery and appliances and equipment of every description for the cutting, transportation, handling, manufacture, logging, and finishing of logs, timber, lumber, shingles, and other forest produce, and of any manufacture of wood or of pulp-wood or paper, or of wood and any other materials severally or in combination, and of all products or by-products of wood or other forest produce, or other materials whatsoever:

(2.) Warehouses, stores, shops, sheds, yards, offices, hotels, boarding-houses, restaurants, workmen's houses, dwellings, camps, and structures of every description:

(d.) To obtain options over, and take or acquire by purchase, lease, grant, licence, exchange, or otherwise howsoever, and either to hold or with a view to resale, timber lands, timber licences, timber limits and leases, claims, berths, pulp licences or leases, resin licences, or any licences or permit relating to any product or by-product of the forest, concessions, booming-grounds, rights-of-way, driving rights, water-powers, water lots, and other easements, rights, privileges, and property whatsoever, whether real or personal, or any estate or interest therein, which may be required or be considered convenient for any purpose of the Company or in connection with any business carried on by it, or which may be considered desirable of acquisition by the Company:

(e.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise any real estate or leasehold property or any interest therein, with or without houses or other buildings and erections thereon, in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere:

(f.) To pay for any property acquired by the Company either wholly in cash or partly in cash and partly in fully paid shares of the Company, or wholly in fully paid shares of the Company, or to give any other security for the payment or part payment of any property so acquired which may be agreed upon between the vendor of such property and the Company:

(g.) To invest and deal with any of the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as from time to time may be determined:

(h.) To improve, alter, manage, work, develop, turn to account, and deal in and with any property, real or personal, acquired by the Company or in which the Company is interested:

(i.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, grant options to purchase, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, bonds, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(j.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(k.) To make, draw, accept, endorse, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, bills of lading, and other negotiable or non-negotiable instruments or obligations:

(l.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business (whether manufacturing or otherwise), property, rights, and liabilities of any company or person carrying on or authorized or intending to carry on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or owning or being entitled to any property which it is considered desirable for this Company to acquire or take any interest in, and to pay therefor wholly or partly in cash or wholly or partly in shares, bonds, or debentures of the Company or otherwise:

(m.) To borrow or raise money, and for the purpose of securing or discharging any such money or any other debt, or any contract of indemnity, or other obligation or liability of or binding upon the Company, to mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property and assets of the Company, present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company:

(n.) To distribute among the members in specie any property of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(o.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid either as principals or agents, and either in the name of the Company or of any person or company as agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority.

The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses, or the objects therein specified, or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.

warehouses, wharves, fishing-stations, and other buildings and easements in any part of Canada or in any part of the world which it may be necessary, profitable, useful, or convenient to so buy, lease, hire, acquire, or otherwise become possessed of or entitled to in pursuance or furtherance of or in connection with the business hereinbefore specified:

(i.) To acquire from the Dominion Government or the Government of any Province any concessions, licences, leases, rights, and privileges which may be found necessary or advisable for the attainment of the objects of the Company or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on the Company by Act of Parliament, charter, licence, or other executive or legislative authority:

(j.) To construct or equip cold-storage plants, and to carry on the business of cold storage, and to harvest, buy, sell, and manufacture ice, wholesale and retail; to deal generally in ice, both natural and artificial, and to utilize ice and other material for the purpose of cold storage:

(k.) To carry on business as dealers in ice, stone, sand, lime, tin, lumber, brick, dry-goods, groceries, and general merchants, both wholesale and retail and on commission, and to act as brokers in the buying and selling of the same, and to carry on the business of real-estate, insurance, and transfer agents, warehousemen, butchers and meat-packers, and common carriers by land and water, and generally to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire, or may consider capable of being conveniently or advantageously carried on in connection with the powers herein contained; and in connection with the business of the Company, to establish branch factories, stores, agencies, depots, and other markets for the purchase and sale of any article dealt in by the Company:

(l.) To acquire water and water-power by records of unrecorded water or by the lease or purchase of water records or water privileges:

(m.) To acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and construct and operate works and supply and utilize water under the "Water Act" or any amendments thereof, or any other Act passed in substitution therefor or as an extension thereof:

(n.) To distribute, sell, supply, or use water-power for mechanical, irrigation, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used:

(o.) To apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purpose of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose to which electricity may be applied:

(p.) To render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by erecting dams, increasing the head of water in any existing body of water or extending the area thereof, diverting the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels, laying or erecting any line of flume, pipe, or weir, and constructing any raceway, reservoir, aqueduct, weir, wheel, building, or other erection or work which may be required in connection with the improvements and use of the said water or water-power, or by altering, renewing, extending, improving, repairing, or maintaining any such works or any part thereof:

(q.) To carry on the business of an electric light company in all its branches, and in particular to construct and lay down, establish, fix, and carry out all necessary cables, wires, lines, accumulators, lamps, and works, and to generate, accumulate, distribute, sell, and supply electricity, and to light buildings, streets, docks, and places, both public and private:

(r.) To construct, operate, and maintain electrical works, power-houses, generating plant, and such other appliances and conveniences as are necessary and proper for generating electricity or any other form of developed power, and for transmitting the same, to be used by the Company, or other persons or corporations contracting with the Company therefor, as a motive power, or for all or any of the purposes to which electricity or electric power derived from water may be applied, used, or acquired:

(s.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, securities, and any rights or privileges, fishing licences or leases which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business, and in payment for same to allot shares of the Company, credited as such or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price thereof, or for any valuable considerations as from time to time may be determined:

(t.) To apply for any Act of Parliament or Legislature or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects, or to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(u.) To acquire, register, and use any brands, patent rights, licences, and trade-marks or privileges of a like nature, and to grant licences thereunder, and to dispose of the same in whole or in part and at any time or times:

(v.) To pay for any assets or property, real or personal, or rights, privileges, permits, or licences acquired by the Company either wholly or partly in shares or stock of the Company, either partly or fully paid up, or for any valuable considerations as from time to time may be determined:

(w.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses, or the objects therein specified, or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.
